BY THE DIVISION:

The Division's Disciplinary Agreement, dated February 12, 2026, in the above-referenced case is hereby amended as follows:

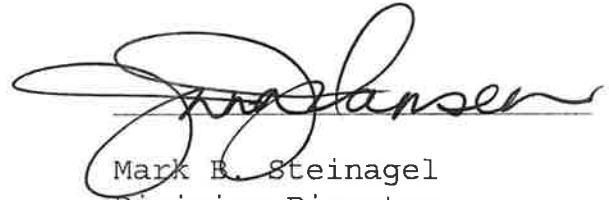

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the probationary condition requiring Respondent to practice only under the indirect supervision of a licensed mental health therapist approved by the Division is amended to allow Respondent to practice only under the general supervision of a licensed mental health therapist approved by the Division effective the date of this Amended Order.

Utah Administrative Code R156-1-102a(1)(c) defines "general supervision" to mean the supervising licensee "(i) has authorized the work to be performed by the person being supervised; (ii) is available for consultation with the person being supervised by personal face-to-face contact, or direct voice contact by electronic or other means, without regard to whether the supervising licensee is present in the facility or located on the same premises where the person being supervised is providing services; (iii) can provide any necessary consultation within a reasonable time; and (iv) personal contact is routine."

All other conditions identified in the February 12, 2026
Disciplinary Agreement shall remain the same in effect.

Dated this 14th day of May, 2026.
